PROFILE

I am a professional dancer, dance teacher, and model based in London and South Wales. I specialise in commercial dance, jazz funk, hip hop, experimental and urban dance. I have been trained in classical ballet since age 4. I have also been training in different dance styles including locking, popping, heels, jazz, and contemporary. I have experience in music video work, live performances, concept videos, modelling, and other dance projects. I am the founder of HybriDance, an organisation that provides monthly workshops for dancers in South Wales. I also teach hip hop, urban, experimental and commercial dance in workshops and pop up classes. Outside of dance and performing, I work as a qualified medical doctor in Accident & Emergency.
